I was invited to the opening of the luxurious OROGOLD Cosmetics products at the Forum Shops, in Caesars Palace. This was a regal affair with live music, appetizers and cocktails. Guests received a skin consultation and complimentary treatments.

Inside the private VIP room, I relaxed and awaited my facial. This facial combined OROGOLD's Nano, Caviar, Termica and Cryogenic lines into one fabulous treatment while utilizing hot and cold elements.

Don explained, "You can choose whether to use the cream, serum and mask of one line or combine one of each line" This multi-product, complex facial brings all of the helpful properties of each of several lines into one facial.

In addition to experiencing the ultimate pampering facial, these facials are beneficial with the infuse 24 Karat gold together with vitamins and specially selected proprietary ingredients in formulas to diminish the signs of aging.

Dan Cohen, skin consultant/store manager, made certain my face was clean then he turned on the mist spray to open the pores.

Dan brought a Termica mask all ready to place on the face. It comes this way without having to mix any creams. The mask stays on for 15 minutes.

Caviar, known for its exotic tastes and ultra-expensive price tag, is used in one line to firm and tighten the neck.

When you open the Caviar container, its "look" resembles Caviar

OROGOLD invites the public to enjoy a complimentary skin analysis and demonstration of their products in the store.

but it is capsules filled with cream. Just squeeze, each capsule is a treatment.

Dan advised, "Since the Nano serum is concentrated, we don't have to use much. It is massaged into the neck for 10 minutes."

Customers who wish to purchase OROGOLD products receive a complimentary 45-60 minute facial in the private VIP room. OROGOLD also invites the public to enjoy a complimentary demonstration of their products in the store.
